Dear Hiring manger,

As a University of Arkansas at Little Rock senior who will be graduating in December 2020, experienced Web design and developer, the advertisement for Web design and developer with your company sparked my interest. When reviewing the position requirements and your organization's website, I was excited to find that my qualifications and personal strengths align with your needs and mission.

I bring a comprehensive set of skills that I believe will be valuable to your company. In my Web design and developer role, I honed my abilities in image optimization and mobile web design, providing a firm foundation for the Web Designer position. My critical thinking, people-centric nature, and compassion have afforded me excellent organization skills.

I am excited to contribute my talents and proficiency in planning toward your team efforts. As an engaging communicator with a proven track record in website structure development, my focus on building strong professional relationships has been a beneficial asset throughout my career.

Please review my enclosed resume for a more in-depth illustration of my work history and accomplishments. I would appreciate the opportunity to interview at your earliest convenience. I'm eager to discuss how my personality and background fit the Web designer and developer role.

Thank you for your time and consideration of my candidacy.

Sincerely,
Vruti Modi
